SUMMARY:

On January 21, 2016, at approximately 7:50AM, two African American males, one armed with a handgun, carjacked a 2004 Ford Econoline van. The van was parked on Village Parkway, at Hercules Ave.

The owner of the vehicle (V-1) drove to Hercules, from Concord, to pick-up his brother (V-2) and go to a plumbing job. V-1 parked on Village Park way, next to the Devonwood condo complex, to wait for his brother to walk out from his home. V-2 was about to get in to the passenger side of the van when S-1 pushed V-2 aside and jumped into the van. At the same time S-2 approached the driver's side of the van and pointed a handgun at V-1. V-1 was ordered to get out the van. S-1 got into the driver's side and drove away, Northbound on Village Parkway, toward Hercules Ave. The van contained expensive commercial plumbing tools, and equipment.

The stolen vehicle is a 2004 Ford Econoline van, white in color, CA license number 8N212334. There were no markings on the vehicle. There were windows in the two back doors; and a roof rack. The vehicle is similar to the attached photo.

Suspect number 1 (S-1) is described as an African American male; 30's; 6-2; 200lbs; wearing dark clothing; and carrying a handgun.

Suspect number 2 (S-2) is described as an African American male; 30's; 6-2; 200lbs; wearing a dark hoodie; dark jeans.

Anyone with information regarding this case should call the Hercules Police Department, 510-7224-1111.
