The reporting party two subjects left the area in a gold colored car towards the 76 gas station Ave. The reporting party described the subjects as African American male adults. One was wearing all black and the other wearing black and red. An officer located the described vehicle at the gas pumps. As he pulled behind the vehicle the officer was contacted by an African American adult, wearing a black jacket, with a red T-shirt, and a red baseball hat. The subject approached officer and began explaining the incident at Burger King. The male stated he did not know the bill was fraudulent and stated he received it from an acquaintance, whom he did not know by name. The male consented to be searched. The officer found a $100 bill. Upon examination of the $100 bill it was determined to be fraudulent based upon its texture, print, and lack of a security thread and watermark. 40 year old Walter Johnson was arrested for Possession of a Counterfeit Bill. Johnson is on current searchable probation and was also charged with Violation of his Probation. While completing a search of second subject's vehicle (who is also on searchable probation), an officer located a license plate in the trunk of his car. The plate had been reported as lost or stolen so the officer seized the plate.

Possession of a Controlled Substance/probation violation: On March 13, 2016 at 1:37 AM an officer located a 20 year old male pushing his vehicle on San Pablo Ave by himself. The officer contacted the male in order to provide him a push to safety. During the contact it was learned 21 year old Jordan Thompson was on searchable misdemeanor probation. During the subsequent search of Thompson and his vehicle the officer found a substance believed to be a narcotic. Thompson was arrested for Possession of a Controlled Substance and Violation of Probation. He was cited and released...

Lastly, an unknown suspect gained access to her checking account and withdrew $1,500 from a branch location in San Jose.

Mental Health Evaluation: On March 13, 2016 at 5:55 p.m. Hercules Officers were at Shell gas station, 3900 San Pablo Ave. They heard a verbal argument, between two women, near the vacuum cleaner station. Officers contacted a 41 year old female and her mother. The mother told Officers her daughter was having a psychotic episode and not taking her medication. The female was determined to meet the criteria for a Mental Health Evaluation. She was transported, by ambulance to the County Regional Medical Center.

Traffic collision/property damage: On March 13, 2016 at 11:04 PM an officer was dispatched to Sycamore at North Front for a single car collision with a light pole down. The officer located in 01 Hyundai with right front and right side damage. The 17 year old male driver, of Rodeo, stated he hit a puddle and hydroplaned causing him to lose control. The driver drove up onto the sidewalk and struck a tree and a light pole. The evidence shows that male was going too fast for conditions.

Attempt Burglary PC 664-459: On March 14, 2016 at 5:04 AM the roommates, of a residence in the 1600 block of Partridge, were awakened by a loud bang and their alarm began sounding. A security check of the residence was conducted and two large muddy footprints were located on the exterior garage door. There was no damage to the door or frame. An area check was conducted and no one was located in the area.

Residential Burglary: On March 14, 2016 at 11:56 a.m. Hercules Officers were dispatched to the 100 block of Starling Way for a report of a residential burglary. The resident stated he was notified, by his Alarm Company, at 10:30 a.m. regarding a motion sensor activation. The reporting party chose not to have the Police dispatched by his Alarm Company. Instead the reporting party responded himself and arrived home

90 minutes after the alarm activation. He found his home's rear sliding glass door had been shattered. Officers checked the interior and didn't locate anyone inside. It appears the suspect made entry into the living room before fleeing back out through the shattered sliding glass door.

CRIME PREVENTION TIP: When you are notified of an alarm activation at your home, or business, have the police dispatched IMMEDIATELY. There is a chance officers may apprehend the suspects, if they are notified immediately of the alarm activation. It is not a good idea for you to go to the house, or business, yourself to see if there had been a break-in. You could be putting yourself, and your family, in danger.

Identity Theft: On March 14, 2016 at 5:30 p.m. an officer was dispatched to the 2000 block of Serra Lane to take an identity theft report. The reporting party said an unknown suspect was able to gain access to her credit card account and purchased $3,400 worth of products/services at a Skin Care business in Mill Valley.

Residential Burglary: On March 14, 2016 at 10:37 PM a resident from the 500 block of Turquoise reported that her residence was burglarized. The residents were last in the residence on March 6, 2016 at 10:00 PM. When they arrived to day they found the rear sliding door open and unlocked and the family room ransacked. Upon closer inspection of the residence a chair was located below an unlocked/open bathroom window. A shattered window was found adjacent to the bathroom window however the glass was still intact in the frame.
