Borela, Desire	19	Hercules

On December 14, 2016, at approximately 5:22pm, Hercules Officers were dispatched to the parking area, of the 100 block of Glenwood, in the Glenwood Condo Complex. The reporting party stated someone had just run over another person. Officers arrived on scene at approximately 5:26pm. An officer observed an adult male lying, in the parking lot, on the pavement. The male had a pulse but was unresponsive. Hercules Rodeo Fire Department arrived and paramedics pronounced the male deceased at approximately 5:38pm.

A witness told the officer she saw an adult female, in a silver or grey vehicle, driving circles in the parking lot. When the witness got closer, to the car, she saw a male was being dragged under the car. The male's body was dislodged from the vehicle and the female driver fled out of the complex.

The investigation showed the male and female both lived in the complex and had a dating relationship. Today the couple had a dispute which ended with the female running over the male, then leaving the scene. The suspect vehicle, a 2006 Maxima, was abandoned, on Village Parkway, near the entrance to Glenwood. At approximately 8:30pm the suspect, Desire Borela, turned herself in to Detectives, at the Hercules Police Department.

Borela was arrested for Second Degree Murder and transported to the Martinez Detention Facility
