DATE: April 30, 2018

TIME: 0700-0700

DAY: Monday

THE FOLLOWING CASES ONLY REFLECT A PARTIAL LIST OF ACTUAL CASES TAKEN. CALLS FOR SERVICE NOT GENERATING WRITTEN REPORTS ARE NOT USUALLY LISTED. ALL THOSE ARRESTED ARE PRESUMED INNOCENT UNTIL PROVEN GUILTY

Public intoxication: On April 30, 2018 at 8:23 am, a Hercules Public Works employee reported seeing a 58 year old male sleeping on the bus bench, on Refugio Valley Rd, in front of Lucky Supermarket. The subject declined offers for services to get him off the street. The subject was found to be intoxicated and unable to care for himself. He was arrested and transported to the Martinez Detention Facility.

Attempt residential burglary: On April 30, 2018 at 2:54 pm, Officers responded to the 100 block of Armstrong for an alarm with living room motion. The residents' daughter arrived prior to PD arrival. She advised a window screen had been removed and a window broken. Officers cleared the residence and determined the suspect(s) had not made entry. A report was taken.

Fraud in progress/ Identity Theft/Parole Violation: On April 30, 2018, at 4:53pm, a Bank of America employee called regarding an adult male trying to check a fraudulent check. Officers contacted the 35 year old male and confirmed he was attempting to cash a check not issued to him. The subject was found to be on parole. The subject was arrested and transported to the Martinez Detention Facility.

Stolen Vehicle Recovery/Poss of Stolen Property: On May 1st 2018 at approximately 4:38AM a HPD Officer checked on an unoccupied vehicle in the parking lot of Rite Aid. An early 2000s model silver BMW X5 displayed the license plate that came back to a 2012 BMW. A check of the VIN# revealed the BMW was report stolen to San Jose PD on June 30th 2017. An Officer remembered speaking to the driver of the BMW the previous night and he stated he does night time cleaning for Rite Aid. After knocking on the door for several minutes, a Hispanic male adult approached the door, but would not open the door. The subject walked away and disappeared from the officers' view. A store manager, who happened to be inside the store, was contacted and let Officers in. The subject was contacted and the key to the BMW was located in his pant pocket but he denied ownership of the vehicle. The 42 year old male subject, of San Jose, was arrested and transported to the Martinez Detention Facility.
