DATE: March 10, 2020

TIME: 0700-0700

DAY: Tuesday

THE FOLLOWING CASES ONLY REFLECT A PARTIAL LIST OF ACTUAL CASES TAKEN. CALLS FOR SERVICE NOT GENERATING WRITTEN REPORTS ARE NOT USUALLY LISTED. ALL THOSE ARRESTED ARE PRESUMED INNOCENT UNTIL PROVEN GUILTY

Residential Burglary: On March 10, 2020, at approximately 6:57 am, HPD Officers were dispatched to the 100 block of Brenner for an alarm activation. Officers arrived on scene, and found an open window with a screen on the ground. It was determined a small amount of cash missing from the house.

Vandalism: On March 10, 2020, at approximately 1:36 pm, an Officer was dispatched to the 100 block of Lilac Circle for vandalism. Sometime between Friday March 6, at approximately 9:00 am, and Saturday, March 7, at approximately 10:00 am, an unknown suspect keyed the victim's, 2017, Hyundai Sonata.

Identity Theft: On March 10, 2020, at approximately 4:04 pm, an Officer was dispatched to the 200 block of Beechnut for an identity theft. The reporting party received a letter from Verizon stating he owed money and his account was in collections. The reporting party has never had a Verizon account.

Warrant Arrest: On March 11, 2020 at 1:07 a.m. An Officer checked on an occupied suspicious Blue '05 Toyota Highlander parked in the parking lot of the Shell gas station, 3900 San Pablo Ave. The 49 year old male driver was found to have two outstanding Misdemeanor No Cite Bench Warrants out of Solano County. The subject was arrested and transported to the Martinez Detention Facility. The subject's two small dogs were taken by Contra Costa County Animal Control.

Residential Burglary/Attempted Residential Burglary x 3 (In-Custody): On March 11, 2020 at 5:30 a.m. Hercules Officers were dispatched to the 2000 block of Drake Lane for a report of a prowler seen trying to break into the residence via a side window. While en-route, a second reporting party called from a house in the 2100 block of Drake Lane. The caller stated a Hispanic male; 20 years old; 5'04"; 140 lbs; thin build; wearing slip-on shoes, and a dark colored sweatshirt; was just inside her residence and entered through a downstairs window. Officers arrived on Drake Lane began a search for the suspect. Officers heard what sounded like a person hopping over a backyard fence. Officers next began searching the alleyway behind houses in the 2000 block of Drake Lane but didn't find the suspect. Officers checked the backyards of residences in the 2100 block of Drake Lane and found two window screens pried off windows. Officers walked down the pathway between two houses and found another window screen pried off. Officers walked to the front of the houses and saw an Hispanic male adult, who matched the suspect description provided by the second reporting party. Officers detained the 23 year old male suspect, and determined he lived in San Pablo. Officers located a window screen pried off of the side window of another house where the suspect was detained. Officers did an infield show-up and the second caller positively identified the subject as the suspect who entered her residence. Officers did a neighborhood canvass and located two nearby residences with front and side window screens pried off. The subject was arrested and transported to the Martinez Detention Facility.
