

HERCULES POLICE DEPARTMENT

WATCH COMMANDER'S SHIFT REPORT

DATE: March 25-31, 2020

TIME: 1900-0700

DAY: Wednesday - Tuesday

THE FOLLOWING CASES ONLY REFLECT A PARTIAL LIST OF ACTUAL CASES TAKEN. CALLS FOR SERVICE NOT GENERATING WRITTEN REPORTS ARE NOT USUALLY LISTED.

Found Property: On March 25, 2020, at about 2:55 pm, a citizen turned in two passports that he had found. The officer was not able to locate any contact information for the owners and the passports were booked into Evidence as safekeeping.

Evading: On March 26, 2020 at about 4:29 pm, an Officer was checking a suspicious vehicle in the parking lot of Big Lots, located in the 1500 block of Sycamore Ave. The vehicle was a silver VW Jetta with a stolen rear plate 6GUJ617. As the officer attempted to walk up to the vehicle, the vehicle fled. A short pursuit was initiated and terminated after .7 miles when the vehicle entered westbound I-80. The vehicle was occupied by three subjects described as a BFA driver, HFA in the front passenger seat, and a BMA in the back seat.

Residential Burglary: On March 26, 2020, at approximately 8:24 pm, Officers were dispatched to a residence in the 100 block of Locust Ct for a residential burglary in progress. Initial information was limited due to a language barrier. Officers arrived and determined the suspect was no longer on scene. The resident stated that an unknown race male, wearing a black hoodie broke the rear sliding glass window and entered his residence. The suspect fled the residence via the point of entry when confronted. Nothing was taken and no further information is available. The scene was processed for possible suspect information.

Domestic Battery: On March 29, 2020, at approximately 4:09 pm, Officers were dispatched to a residence in the 100 block of Hidden Cove for a 26 year old female who was in a black car in front of the residence, and screaming for someone to call 911. Officers arrived in the area and located a black Nissan Altima stopped on southbound San Pablo Avenue just south of Victoria Crescent West. Officers located the female and she had several minor abrasions to her forehead, face and neck. She said she was assaulted by a subject she described as a Black male, about 30 years old, with a short "fade style" haircut, and possibly wearing a hooded sweat shirt, whom she previously had a dating relationship with. The victim became uncooperative and refused to identify the suspect and said she would not press charges. The Officer is still working on trying to determine who the suspect is. The Officer tried to contact the Reporting party and was not able to make contact.

Sex Offender Annual Registration: On March 30, 2020 a case was pulled for a sex offender annual registration.

NOTE: Due to the Coronavirus, Officers are still proactively providing extra patrols of all shopping centers to help prevent crimes.

Crime Prevention Tip: Please be mindful of those persons looking to fraudulently take advantage of these difficult times and pose as certified assistance for those in need. Also, do not open your front door for anyone knocking or ringing the doorbell without looking to see who it is first. There have been reports from neighboring cities of criminals posing to be census workers, or employees of the Center of Disease Control (CDC). Neither organization are going door to door at this time.
